

THE SEDONA WOMEN
POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

I. INTRODUCTION

Policies and Procedures provide guidelines to assist with the day-to-day workings of the organization and to elaborate on the Bylaws. Their purpose is to provide a reference point for decision-making and to assist the Board in maintaining focus without encumbering its function. In order to accurately reflect the changing needs of the organization, Policies and Procedures will ideally be reviewed annually and may be revised at any time by a consensus of the Board of Directors.

II. GENERAL INFORMATION

Mission: The Sedona Women is dedicated to making a positive and lasting impact on the community of Sedona by providing opportunities for women to build relationships, to learn about the community and our world, to support community needs and to enhance the natural beauty and distinctive character of Sedona.

- A. We are a 501(c) (3) tax-exempt organization. Our tax number is 73-1670267.
- B. The organization should be referred to as “The Sedona Women” on all printed materials for public release, not simply “Sedona Women.”
- C. The Sedona Women is apolitical and does not take positions on community issues.
- D. The Sedona Women is not a business or professional networking organization and as such no solicitation is permitted at our meetings, at The Sedona Women sponsored events, via our website, or by use of information in our online membership directory.
- E. Program presenters/speakers at our general meetings may provide handouts with biographical information and information on products and services that are directly related to their presentations. This handout may contain website or contact information.
- F. With prior approval of the Program Committee and the Board, and only if it is directly related to the presenter and/or the program, presenters/speakers may be offered the opportunity to display, sell or give away their goods or services at the general meeting. Ten (10) percent of the proceeds will be paid by the vendor/speaker directly to the Sedona Creative Life Center, with whom we have our current contract as the location of our general meetings. In most cases, speakers do not have to pay this percentage when we use other locations such as the Elks Lodge.
- G. On a case-by-case basis, the Board of Directors will review, approve or deny items for sale or raffle that support our Community Service Projects, Helen Wolfe Scholarship Fund or other Board projects.
- H. Use of The Sedona Women name is allowed only by permission of the Board of Directors.
- I. The logo is to be used whenever possible on communications and printed information involving the organization.

III. MEMBERSHIP

Membership is open to any woman committed to, and passionate about, making a lasting and positive impact on the Sedona community.

- A. The fiscal membership year coincides with the fiscal year - July 1 through June 30.

- B. The “Membee” member management system will coordinate members from August 1 through the second Thursday in November
- C. Annual dues are $75.00 for inclusion in the online membership directory.
- D. The Membership Committee will begin soliciting the upcoming year’s membership at the beginning of August to encourage members to renew. Notification of this early renewal of membership will be by the Membee member management system and in the monthly newsletter.
- E. Any new or renewing payment of dues after July 1 will generate a full membership for the current year.
- F. Guests are welcome two times each year. A voluntary donation may be paid by non-members (Guests) who attend any general meeting. The guests email will be included as a non-member in our system.

IV. GENERAL MEETINGS

General meetings are typically held on the second Wednesday of each month, September through May, at the Sedona Creative Life Center on Schnebly Hill Road, unless otherwise announced.

- A. Social gathering begins at 9:30 AM and the business meeting starts at 10:00 AM.
- B. The President, or her designee, sets the agenda for the meeting with input from the Board.
- C. The President, or her designee, presides over the meeting.
- D. The Sedona Women’s mission statement will normally be communicated at the beginning of each meeting.
- E. If time permits, women who are attending the meeting for the first time will be asked to stand and briefly introduce themselves.
- F. The business portion of the meeting should not exceed 40 minutes and preferably less, allowing the remaining time for the scheduled program and other activities. Any announcements made during the meeting should be pertinent to the organization’s activities and interests.
- G. If time permits, the program organizers, along with the President, will end the meeting with a “Thought for the Day” or some kind of closing remarks.
- H. The annual meeting of the membership occurs every May on the same day as the general meeting. At this meeting, the membership votes for a slate of candidates, nominated by The Board of Directors, to serve on the Board of Directors. Anyone attending the meeting who is a member is eligible to vote.

V. BOARD OF DIRECTORS/OFFICERS

The Board of Directors, elected by members of the organization, manages the affairs of The Sedona Women and represents the interests of the general membership. Each Board member is expected to attend regularly scheduled meetings and take an active role in projects, programs and committees. ## VI. STANDING COMMITTEES

All committees shall have a Chair, ideally a co-chair or vice chair, who will succeed the Chair for the following club year.

A. Executive Committee

It consists of the President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Immediate Past President. It meets when convened by the President. The Executive Committee:

1. Exercises the powers of the Board of Directors, with the exception of electing officers, fill vacancies on the Board or change established policies when The Sedona Women is not in session;
2. Functions in accordance with the responsibilities outlined in the Bylaws of the organization;
3. Develops the financial policies of the organization;
4. Acts as a signatory for all bank accounts.

B. Archives Committee

The Secretary is Chair of Archives. However, Archives are hugely dependent on the Board and committee members for providing PR coverage, internal communications and photographs that can be digitally stored for future reference. Its responsibilities are to keep an up-to-date archival record for the organization. It provides a historical record of all the business the Board has transacted, offers a pictorial record of activities in which the organization has engaged and affords a safe, central repository of important documents. Chair of Archives:

1. Maintains or oversees the maintenance of a digital record of all Board meeting minutes, and other pertinent information, press coverage, photographs, etc.;
2. Oversees that E-blasts and TSW Newsletters are preserved digitally on our email marketing tool;
3. Appoints one or two Board members to help review what is in the Archives at the end of each meeting year. This committee will be knowledgeable in maintaining chronological and subject matter records.

C. Communications Committee

The Communications Committee consists of the E-Communications Manager, Website Manager, Facebook Manager, Program Audio-Visual Manager, and Sunshine Manager. The Chair of the Communications Committee can be any one of these managers. The committee's job is informing members of meetings and special news items in a clear, positive and timely manner. It requires that these managers work closely with each other and with all other committees and Board members. The notices they receive from other committees that are to be shared with the membership and are to be in "e-news or email ready" form. The communications managers are not expected to compose these announcements.

The President shall serve on this committee and will also appoint its Chair. All nominees are to be confirmed by the Board.
2. The duties of the Nominating Committee are to seek candidates for the Board, via an open nomination process, who represent the organization’s diversity and who are energetic, friendly, cooperative, dependable and able to extend themselves to the general membership.
3. There are no minimum requirements for nomination to the Board. However, a one-year membership in The Sedona Women and a preference that the candidate has served on a committee would be ideal.
- 4.. Members and Board members can nominate candidates. Individual members can nominate themselves.
5. The general membership will be informed that nomination forms are on our website.
6. To give the membership ample time to seek candidates for serving on the Board, The President or Membership Chair will open the nomination process with an announcement to the membership at two general meetings, once in January and again in February.
7. The Nominating Committee shall vet all candidates. They will explain the responsibilities and requirements of being a Board member, and provide any information that will answer any questions or concerns these candidates might have. Once all vetted candidates have been agreed upon by the Nominating Committee these candidate’s biographies will be distributed by email to all Board members for a vote to nominate them to the Board. This vote should be done in March, in advance of the April planning meeting so that these Board candidates can participate in this meeting.
8. The Nominating Committee will provide all Board nominees’ biographies to the E- Communications Director for distribution by email to the general membership at least fifteen (15) days prior to the May annual meeting. It is at the May annual

- meeting the general membership votes to elect the nominees to the Board.
9. At the May Board meeting, the President or Nominating Committee Chair presents the nominees of the Officers for the upcoming year. The Board votes to elect these Officers, and they are introduced to the general membership at the annual meeting in May.

VII. BOARD ACTIVITIES

A. Monthly Meetings

1. Board meetings are normally scheduled on the first Wednesday of each month from September through May. The meetings begin at 9:30 AM and may continue until noon. A social time may be scheduled from 9:00-9:30 AM prior to the start of the business meeting. Board members should notify the President when unable to attend a meeting.
2. The President, with input from the Board, creates the agenda and emails it to Board members prior to the meeting. Each Board member is responsible for contacting the President if she would like to be included on the agenda.
3. Prior to the meeting, each committee chair or event planner on the agenda is to submit a written report, via email, to the Recording Secretary.
4. The Secretary is to take active minutes. This includes any information that requires an assignment or is voted on by the Board. It is not necessary to include general discussion of agenda items in the minutes.
5. Board meeting minutes are to be emailed to all Board members as soon as possible after the meeting for review and correction, as necessary, and in corrected form prior to each Board meeting.

B. Board Member Orientation:

A meeting is to be held shortly after the May annual meeting to welcome new Board members. This meeting includes the President, a nominating committee member, and at least one other current Board member. Board expectations, By-laws, and Policies & Procedures will be reviewed. Founding members and/or past presidents will be invited to this meeting in order for them to give an historical perspective of the organization and share their experiences.

C. Planning Meeting

The planning meeting is a time for strategic planning and policy direction. Major decisions on finances, programming, trips, projects and other activities for the coming year are finalized as much as possible at this time.

1. The planning meeting is held in April following the regular Board meeting.
2. The in-coming President for the upcoming year plans and presides over the planning meeting, creates the agenda with input from Board members, and emails the planning meeting agenda to the Board members prior to the meeting.
3. Bylaws and Policies & Procedures are updated as needed.

VIII. BUDGET REVIEW AND DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS

A. Budget Review Meeting

The fiscal year runs from July 1 through June 30. At the April planning meeting the Treasurer will provide each committee an up-to-date summary of their expenses versus budget for the year. Once the books are closed on June 30, at the first meeting of the new club year, September, a complete review of the previous year's budget will be given by the Treasurer, as well as a report of each committee's actual spending versus budget for the previous year. At the September meeting each committee will be asked to submit to the Board its final budget requests for the upcoming year. Budget requests will be discussed and approved by the Board.

B. Distribution of Funds

1. Monies brought into the club are to be used for its ongoing operating needs and specific needs and projects in the greater Sedona area.
